

CitiXsys Technologies Acquires New Customers in March

More Than 60 New Customers will get Support Services from CitiXsys

NEW YORK, April 4 /PRNewswire/ -- CitiXsys Technologies, Inc. a leading provider of software and professional services for SAP(R) Business One partners and customers, added more than 60 new Support Services customers this month. The new customer acquisition is part of an agreement signed in March 2006 with RSM McGladrey to assume customer support responsibilities for clients RSM McGladrey acquired as a result of their acquisition of American Express Tax and Business Services.

Customers making the transition will benefit from a range of new services including technical support for SAP(R) Business One and assistance with upgrades, implementation and customization, as well as access to a range of additional software products and add-ons.

"This contract with CitiXsys will provide our customers with enhanced support services, and will allow our organization to focus on the sale and implementation of SAP Business One software products, including products developed by CitiXsys, said Harvey Goss, Managing Director of RSM McGladrey's New York information services consulting practice.

"CitiXsys has just completed a significant new customer acquisition," said Kamal Karmakar, CEO of CitiXsys Technologies. "This growth can be attributed to our focus on exceptional customer service and our ability to meet the needs of SAP(R) Business One partners and customers."

"2006 will continue to be an exciting year as we introduce new products and services into the SAP(R) Business One marketplace," added Karmakar.
